A CARELESS HOUSEBOY.

Penalty of Losing Silver Jugs.

The case was resumed at the Supreme Court, to-day, in which a "boy" named Chau Yau sued Mrs. Lambert for $18, said to be due as wages.

At the previous hearing defendant told the Court that two days prior to removing into another house she told plaintiff to pack up the silver ware. He replied that he had sent some of it down to the office, but on a search being made it was found that two silver jugs which had been in defendant's family for 200 years were missing. Plaintiff sent this silver away without being in any way authorised to do so.

Private Crow, of the Army Ordnance Corps, now gave evidence to receiving two baskets from a market coolie. These contained several silver articles, but no jugs. Plaintiff said that all he knew was that he gave the baskets to the market coolie, and that the silver jugs were in them.

Mr. Justice Gompertz told plaintiff that there was no evidence of larceny either against him or the market coolie, but it was a most careless and stupid thing to put such valuable things in a basket to be delivered by a coolie. It seemed to him that on the whole that was sufficient ground for dismissal of the plaintiff by Mrs. Lambert, and the claim would therefore be dismissed.

NEW ISLAMIC CLUB.

Following in the footsteps of the new Zoroastrian Club of the Parsees, the members of the Mohammedan community intend opening very shortly their own national Society Club. The first meeting in connection with the movement was held on Saturday evening at the premises of Mr. A. M. E. Sabhy. Mr. Immanuel Chadooboy, of the firm, of Messrs. E. Pabani, president, and there was present a big gathering of the community, representing various firms. A subscription list was opened for the provision of the club's furniture, and $750 were collected, while the following well-known Mohammedan firms have generously agreed to subscribe the following monthly sums to the funds:—Messrs. A. M. E. Sabhy, $20; E. Pabani, $20; H. M. H. Nemaioo, $10; A. Ebrahim and Co., $20; O. Abdool and Co., $15; H. Hippolla and Co., $10; M. Karamally and Co., $10.

and Mr. M. Alarick Hon. Secy and Treasurer. The appointment of the following gentlemen to the committee was suggested:—Messrs. Abdul Kayumaboy, H. Nimazi and E. Ahmedbhai. It was also suggested to name the club "The Hongkong Islamic Club."

AN EMPRESS'S TRIBUTE.

Mr. Arthur Lloyd writes as follows to the Japan Mail:—Some time ago, when Prince Ito retired from his post in Korea, Her Majesty the Empress of Japan wrote out and gave him the subjoined poem, which she had composed some time before:—

Amatsu Kami
Shiroshi mousun
Mumeyaka ni
Kimi ni taworu
And no kokoro wo.

"The God of Heaven
Will surely know and praise the faithful heart

HONGKONG, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1909.

CONTRASTS OF A GREAT CITY.

On the whole Englishman can take a pardonable pride in the size of London, if for nothing else. In all history no city has ever gathered together such a vast population within its civic and municipal limits. From statistics concerning "the great wen," just published by the London County Council—statistics which fill a volume of 500 pages—we gather that the estimated population of Greater London on the 6th April last was 7,420,740, a population which is greater than that of Belgium, which is two millions in excess of that of Holland, and which is slightly in excess of what the total population of England and Wales was 140 years ago. One hundred years ago the population of London did not reach one million. It has 704,294 Parliamentary electors, but the statistics show how little interest is taken in local government. Even at the last County Council election, when the poll was heavier than ever before, only 55 per cent. of the electors troubled to record their votes. It is cheating to know that Londoners, in the year 1908, had 1,240 hours of sunshine, which is more than several provincial centres, including Birmingham and Manchester, obtained. Wages in nearly every kind have gone up, in some cases by as much as 4s. 3d. per week. Comparison is given with the wages paid in Paris and Berlin, and it is noticeable that in practically every case wages are higher, and the hours of labour shorter in London than they are abroad. There are 2,151 miles of streets in London and no fewer than 127 miles are laid with tramways. The gross cost in street improvements during the last two years has been over nine million pounds, although the net cost has only been some three and a-half millions. On an ordinary weekday no fewer than 3,556 trains run into the various London railway termini, and in 1907 the Council trains carried more than 372 million passengers.

So much for mere statistics. Now to turn to a less admirable aspect of London. We find in a recent issue of the Daily Mail a German writer, expressing the amazement which observant Germans and Americans invariably feel on reaching the great metropolis of the British empire and viewing the sickening squalor of the poor. Poor there are in New York and Berlin, as well as elsewhere; but in no city is poverty, he declares, so repulsive as in the English capital. The Daily Mail's contributor, Dr. OSCAR SCHWENNER, saw in Hoxton Market what he had never beheld before—women and children so filthy that he was afraid to touch them. Yet he, like other residents of the Continent, had always believed the English to be personally the cleanliest people in the world. The reason, he thinks, is that Germans are taught cleanliness in schools and in the army, and that dirty, ill-kept tramps are not permitted to wander abroad for long without being put to work. The dirty school child in Germany is sent home, and the police see to it, if the parents do not heed the first warning, that repeated offences are made impossible. Dr. SCHWENNER feels, too, that much British unemployment is not due to lack of work, but to lack of a desire to work—"We have no unemployed question in Berlin," he writes, "and no poorhouses. I do believe that this latter fact is one of the reasons why we have no unemployed to deal with."

The terrible contrast between the dolour and the grime of the East end and the unparalleled luxury of the West end of London has always aroused the keenest criticism on the part of foreign visitors. Writing nearly sixty years ago, Dr. SAMUEL GRADLEY HOWE, the famous philanthropic abolitionist of Boston, said to a Boston friend:—"For after all, Summer, with its blaze of talent, its gorgeous wealth, its exquisite refinement, London could never hold in my heart or my mind so high a place as does Boston: because, measured by God's scale, it is not so high. I have not been so dazzled by the head and the front of the monster as to forget the fact that it has a tail which draggles along through the foulest slough in which humanity ever wallowed."

About half-past four o'clock on Sunday afternoon an old Chinese woman was knocked down by a tramcar near the Victoria Cinema and badly injured. She was immediately conveyed to hospital, the driver made every endeavour to apply the brakes but was too near. The car was travelling at a slow rate.

The Yokohama Agency of the C.P.R. is in receipt of a wireless message from the R.M.S. Empress of India, despatched on Saturday last, the 6th instant, at 11 p.m. at which time the steamer was 1,600 miles distant from Japan. It is calculated that the vessel should reach Yokohama early on Thursday morning next, the 11th instant.

When H.M. despatch vessel Albatross arrived at Shanghai from Japan on November 1st, with Admiral Sir Hedworth Lampton on board, while making for the senior naval officer's hono, she missed it, and in some manner fouled the telephone cable which was somewhat damaged. It took about an hour and a quarter for the vessel to get clear of the cable.

H.T.H. the Crown Prince of Japan attended the second day's racing of the Nippon Race Club meeting at Negishi, on October 30. The Emperor's Cup was won by Mr. E. L. Elliott, who owned, trained and rode his mount. On learning this Prince Haru, who had followed the race with the keenest interest, asked Sir Claude MacDonald to convey to Mr. Elliott, his personal congratulations.

Music lovers are offered a bright and happy evening at the Theatre Royal to-night, when the "Port and Starboard Lights" are to give what will probably be their last concert. The first part of the programme will be of a miscellaneous character, while in the second portion the Port party will occupy the boards in a collective capacity and present some novel features. The concert is in aid of the St. John's Cathedral Organ Fund.

Under the distinguished patronage of the Secretary of State that the celebration of His Majesty's Birthday is postponed till November the 25th, in consequence of the funeral obsequies of H. T. M. the late Emperor Dowager of China, which takes place on November the 9th, notices for general information that there will not be a public holiday on November the 9th, and that the parade of troops and the Official Birthday Dinner and Ball at Government House will be postponed to November the 25th. The Garden Party at Head Quarters House on the King's Birthday is postponed till the 25th November.

We are asked to state that the local Fire and Marine Insurance Office will be open as usual to-morrow, and not close to public business as advertised in another column.

BAD WEATHER.

Vessels coming up from Singapore must be expecting bad weather to judge from the typhoon warnings which are reaching the Colony from Manila. The following telegrams are circulated by the American Consulate—General for general information:

Manila, November 6th, 6 p.m.
Cyclone or typhoon between the Virayas Luzon, moving W. or W.N.W.

Manila, November 7th, 10 a.m.
Cyclone or typhoon W. of Mindoro, moving W. or W.N.W.

Manila, November 7th, 4 p.m.
Cyclone or typhoon S.W. of Manila, moving W.N.W.

Manila, November 8th, 10 a.m.
Cyclone or typhoon, W. of Luzon; more than 100 miles distant, moving N.W. or N.N.W.

The Hongkong Observatory report that the typhoon is between Luzon and the Macdonald Bank.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Gazette contains regulations for exempting ships' stores from duty under the Liquor Ordinance.

H. M. S. Monmouth returned from the North this morning and immediately went into the Naval Camber.

At the Sanitary Board meeting on Tuesday, correspondence relative to malarial fever in New Kowloon will be read.

"No person shall sit or stand upon any part of the rails of Blake Pier," says a regulation recently made by the Governor-in-Council.

This week's Overland China Mail is ready for posting by the French Mail to-morrow morning. It contains all the local news of the week.

The name of Mr. A. Colbourne Little has been added to the list of authorized architects in the Colony, and Mr. Donald MacDonald's name has been restored.

ANGLO-GERMAN INTERESTS IN AFRICA.

NECESSITY FOR CO-OPERATION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, November 8.
Herr Dernburg, the German Secretary of State for the Colonies, was the guest last night at a banquet given by the African Society in London, and in the course of a speech he dwelt on the community of Anglo-German interests in Africa and the necessity for a uniform policy towards the natives. The prestige of the Whites, he said, must be maintained under all circumstances.

Colonel Seely, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, welcomed Herr Dernburg on behalf of the Government. The British and Germans, he said, had penetrated so deep into Africa that it would be a disaster to the whole world if there was strife in Europe.

NOISES INTERRUPT COURT BUSINESS.

While opening a case before Mr. Justice Gompertz at the Supreme Court, this morning, Mr. F. B. L. Bowley said he did not know whether or not the Hongkong Hotel Company were to be permitted to use their iron girders whilst the Court was sitting. It was very difficult indeed to talk against that and also the noise on the Post Office Buildings.

His Lordship—I didn't know who was making the noise.

Mr. Bowley—What with the hammering at the Post Office and the cutting of iron girders at the Hongkong Hotel, it is impossible to carry on the business of the Court, I submit.

The Judge's clerk was despatched to issue instructions to cause an abatement of the noises, and soon the wishes of the Court were complied with.

THE HONGKONG VOLUNTEER RESERVE ASSOCIATION.

The last day of the Autumn Meeting, which was fixed for to-morrow, has been postponed to November 25th, in accordance with all the other King's Birthday holidays and celebrations. Yesterday and Saturday there was a very good attendance and a great deal of fun was got out of the various events. Over seventy cards were returned and some good scores were made.

A STRANGE CLAIM.

Painting Characters on Granite.

Before Mr. Justice Gompertz, in the Court of Summary Jurisdiction, this morning, an action was heard in which the Yik Tai Kung See and the See Hing Tong sought to recover a sum of $152.50 from the Shun Li Firm. Particulars of the claim showed that $52.50 was for the value of 25 blocks of granite lying in a quarry at Kowloon, which had been damaged by defendants by painting thereon certain Chinese characters in tar; while the remaining $100 claimed was for damages because of alleged unlawful trespass on plaintiffs' premises and interference with their business.

Mr. F. B. L. Bowley was for plaintiffs and Mr. P. Sydenham Dixon for defendants.

Mr. Bowley opened the case at length, outlining the content followed in the quarrying of granite. He went on to state that this trouble had arisen because of the unwarranted action of a man named Li Shun, who was a sleeping partner in the See Hing Tong (the second plaintiffs), but whose share in the concern was very small. Indeed, if an examination of the accounts were made it would probably reveal the fact that his interest therein had been overdrawn. In the seventh month this year the See Hing Tong received orders from a firm in Canton to cut and deliver certain stones of specified size and shape to be used in the construction of a building. These were cut and ready for the purchasers to take away in their junks. After that date, however, the sleeping partner woke up under compulsion from the defendants, to whom he owed money. He marked the stones, some of them in the name of the Shun Li Firm, and another with these words: "These stones have been cut by the See Hing Tong and assigned to the Shun Li Firm, and no man is allowed to buy them secretly. Purchasers found by any Government officer will be prosecuted and punished." This assignment was made without any permission whatever from the See Hing Tong, Mr. Dixon says. We say that Li Shun is the man responsible. None of my clients went over with him. He built and one of our clients went over. Li Shun pointed out the stones which he said were his, and they were marked on his instructions. Then he came back and assigned his interests in this quarry to my clients. We didn't commit any trespass; Li Shun did.

His Lordship—Who marked the stones? Mr. Dixon—A lot of ours under directions from Li Shun.

His Lordship—Then you say Li Shun having done this relieves you of responsibility? Mr. Dixon—He took the responsibility because we did nothing whatever. He assigned these stones to us, but whether he had any right to assign them or not is doubtful. There was no wrong committed by us; we were perfectly innocent. It would be another matter if we had purposely gone over and seized the stones; we have done nothing but receive the assignment.

Evidence was called.

His Lordship gave judgment for plaintiffs in $77.50 the full amount claimed for damaging the stones, and $25 for the trespass.

CROUP QUICKLY CURED.

A FEW drops of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy brings surprising results when a child shows symptoms of croup. There is no case for alarm when this medicine is to the house, as it rarely takes more than three or four doses to bring about a complete cure. It has never failed even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by all chemists and storekeepers.

A QUESTION OF BAIL.

Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, Deputy Official Receiver, summoned Moses Ibrahim, late of Moosa & Vioira and Company, at the Supreme Court to-day that he with intent to defraud did not to the best of his knowledge fully and truly discover to the trustee in bankruptcy all the debtor's property and how and to whom it was disposed of, and when he disposed of $3,000 part thereof with intent to defraud did not deliver up to the trustee in the above bankruptcy certain of the debtor's property which he is required by law to deliver up with intent to defraud did not deliver in his said bankruptcy all the books, documents, papers and writings in his custody or under his control relating to his property or affairs; after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by himself or within four months next before such presentation he did make wilfully and with intent to defraud conceal a certain part of his property to the value of $50 or upwards; with intent to defraud he unlawfully made a material omission and misstatement in his statement of affairs; with intent to defraud he was guilty of false representations for the purpose of obtaining the consent of his creditors to an agreement with reference to his affairs dated the 18th May, 1908; with intent to defraud his creditors he unlawfully made a delivery or transfer of certain of his property.

Mr. F. B. L. Bowley, prosecuting on behalf of the Crown, asked his Worship to fix a day for the hearing some time next week.

Mr. Eldon Potter, for defendant, said he thought his Worship ought to consider the question of the reduction of bail if there was to be an adjournment for any length of time. The present bail of $15,000 was too heavy.

Mr. Bowley said the object of bail was to secure the presence of the defendant in Court. On the other hand, his Worship had to consider the gravity of the offences with which defendant was charged. He (Mr. Bowley) did not have time to read through the charges yet, but he gathered from many of them that the amount of property which defendant was charged with misappropriating or concealing was very considerable and far exceeded the $15,000 bail. He very much regretted that he must strenuously object to any reduction in bail, and, indeed, must reserve his right to apply for an increase.

Replying to his Worship, Mr. Potter said he thought they could find two sureties of $5,000 each.

His Worship—You see that the charge is a very serious one, Mr. Potter.

Mr. Potter—Yes, your Worship, but I think when the case comes up it will whittle down very considerably.

After further discussion, his Worship said the alternative to the present bail of $15,000 was defendant and two others in sureties of $10,000 each.

Mr. Potter said he would prefer the latter.

The case was then remanded until Tuesday next, and bail fixed on the terms agreed to by Mr. Potter.

S. E. ALLANA CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

At the Magistrate's Court this afternoon, before Mr. E. R. Halifax, S. E. Allana, of 55 Hollywood Road, was charged by S. A. Marican, of the cycle depot, Des Vaux Road, on May 1st, then being in the employ of complainant, with embezzling a gold watch and chain; on May 15th, a sum of $250; and on August 23rd obtaining a ticket for Calcutta by false pretences.

Mr. P. W. Goldring appeared to prosecute and Mr. P. Hett defended.

Mr. Goldring—I ask your Worship to remand the case until the same day as the other one.

Mr. Hett—I hope your Worship will do nothing of the kind.

His Lordship—Have you any particular reason for that?

Mr. Goldring—My principal witness is the defendant in the last case and it will prejudice it. This case is a sort of appendix to the other one and it would be unfair to put it in the box and cross-examine him.

Mr. Hett—I am quite prepared to take the risk which my client will run.

Mr. Potter—It would put my client in a very peculiar position being cross-examined by a solicitor. Allana is the principal informant against us.

A good deal of argument followed and his Worship decided that the case must proceed.

Mr. Goldring, in opening the case, said that defendant was a bankrupt and obtained his discharge some few months ago subject to suspension of a year on the application of his solicitor, Mr. Hastings, that he be allowed to return to India. Proceeding Mr. Goldring said that defendant was eventually employed by Mr. Marican as a man to sell cycles which were fixed but amounted to between $30 and $40 a month. Moosa kept the books and he discovered that defendant had purchased a watch and chain a day or two previous to his bankruptcy and had paid for it by money from the business of the defendant, which had been sold to Marican. On going through the books he further found that the cash did not balance with the books by $250 and $50 and he immediately informed Marican. On returning Moosa found that the book and chain were still there. Further it was found that defendant had returned to his evil ways and was spending a great deal of money on American prostitutes. One night Marican found him in disreputable company and he told defendant that he would have nothing further to do with him. However defendant came the next day and asked Marican to give him a passage to India and this Marican did but defendant disappeared with the ticket and was found to have gone to Canton. Evidence was called and the case was adjourned.

A HANDSOME SOUVENIR.

From the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha we have received a very handsome portfolio of photographs. It is called a "Souvenir of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the establishment of the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha and Engine Works (July, 1909)." Starting with portraits of the late Mr. Yataro Iwasaki, the first and second Presidents of the company, it goes on to depict the present heads of the great establishment and the leading men upon the staff; then we have pictures of the dockyards, graving docks, workshops, schools and other buildings in connection with the works; illustrations of machinery turned out and dozens of pictures of the ships built at Nagasaki during the past quarter of a century. The record is one of which any country might well be proud and one again locally illustrates the enormous strides that Japan has made, for the ships turned out by the Nagasaki docks include warships, turbine liners, and the latest of yachts as well as the most substantial of freighters.

Interport Practice Matches.

A correspondent writes:—It is a pity that interport practice games should prevent work teams from being able to play. A long time has been in progress, as a League match, for practice games, as much practice as a match of Probables and Possibles. Local clubs very generously allow the Colony to take their best players, when an interport match is being played, but to be deprived of their services in League matches for practice games is expecting a little too much, and we think the members of the various clubs should in future have more consideration for the clubs to which they belong.

The course was from the Club House round the Channel Rocks, port, East Rock buoy, port, Channel Rocks (starboard), Meyer's East buoy, port, and home. Seven boats started in the handicap class viz: "Dione and Vernon scratch; Eric, racing, 1 minute 18 seconds, and Min, Kathleen, Colleen, and Ada receiving 4 minutes 10 seconds. In the one-design class four boats started viz: Halcyon, Daphne, Bonito II, and Alannah. An interval of ten minutes was allowed between the times of starting each class. The day was fine for racing, there being a slight easterly wind, varying to N.E. and N. All in the handicap class had a fairly good start on the starboard bank. The Dione, wearing round the Channel Rocks line, closely followed by Eric and Vernon; then came Kathleen, Min, with Colleen and Ada bringing up the rear. At East Rock buoy Dione was still leading and Vernon had passed into second place. On the back bank to Channel Rocks, Vernon, after a close contest with Dione, secured the lead, and rounded the rocks a little ahead of Dione, with Eric third, and Min and Kathleen close together. The two latter had an exciting race down, Min eventually getting the better of the Engineers' boat. Vernon kept her lead to the end and the final result was:—

Actual Time.	Corrected Time.
Vernon ... 18	3
Dione ... 18	55
Min ... 22	18
Kathleen ... 22	45
Eric ... 22	3
Colleen ... 22	3
Ada ... 22	3
Vernon and Min were therefore a tie. The Ada had the misfortune to split her jib.

In the one-design class there was no close racing. Halcyon took first place, Bonito II second, Daphne third and Alannah fourth.

After the races the ladies who nominated the first and second boats in each class were presented with prizes by Mr. May, Mr. Hastings and Mrs. Looker being the recipients in the handicap class and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Bird in the one-design class.

The second Club race will be sailed on the 20th inst.

Boxing.

Under the auspices of the V. R. C. there will be a boxing bout between Seaman Grant of H. M. S. Kent and Seaman Gibney of H. M. S. Flora for the heavy-weight championship of the British Fleet, South China division, on Saturday at 9.15 p.m. Grant is well-known in Hongkong and Gibney is only newly out from Home but he has a long list of records. The fight will be a good one and both men are hard at work. The above will be the main event and beside there will be several interesting bouts between well-known amateurs.

Army Rugby.

Army Rugby, under the honorary secretaryship of Capt. J. Ransford Hannay, "The Queen's Regiment," is making great strides this year. On October 31st Capt. Hannay had an Army Trial Match at Richmond, when two very strong sides opposed each other. The Army Selection Committee are W. C. Wilson (Leicesterhire Regiment), G. C. Goward (Royal Engineers), and L. Robertson (Cameron Highlanders). Wilson is an English International while the other two are Scotch Internationals.

ITEMS AT THE COURTS.

For soliciting in Queen's Road Central, Anna Fischmann was fined $25 at the Magistrate's Court to-day.

A district watchman arrested a native in connection with the robbery at Messrs Shewan, Tomes and Co.'s godown in Des Vaux Road which took place a fortnight ago. The man was charged with stealing twelve bolts of canvas, value $200. Prisoner was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labour and four hours' stocks, at the Magistrate's Court to-day.

Two natives appeared before Mr. E. R. Halifax at the Magistrate's Court to-day charged with returning from banishment and a sentence of six months' imprisonment and six hours' stocks was imposed. An exactly similar case came before Mr. J. R. Wood and a sentence of twelve months' imprisonment and six hours' stocks was imposed.

A Chinese went into a silversmith's shop at Wanchai and asked for some children's jewellery, making a deposit of $5. At the same time he asked the shopman to accompany him home with a quantity of finger rings and other articles to show to his women folk. This the shopman did and when they got to the house the shopman was left downstairs while the other person went upstairs with the jewellery. A short while afterwards he came down again and told the shopman to go upstairs to see what the women would select. The shopman did so but when he came down again, the women knowing nothing about the matter, the native had made himself scarce.

SMOKING CONCERT.

A most successful smoking concert was held on Saturday evening at the Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders, when Mr. T. Richardson presided over the largest attendance yet seen at any of those jovial functions. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent, the artists who so ably contributed to the entertainment including: Messrs H. E. Hone, baritone; E. S. Ayris, tenor; W. A. White, bass; John Cobb, tenor; W. A. Hamilton, humorist; W. G. Worcester, humorist; T. G. Carroll, humorist; Captain Beasley, R.G.A., baritone; Comdr. Penfold, R.N., baritone; A. W. Chapman, R.G.A., whistling solo; Geo. Grimble, accompanist.

During the evening Mr. Richardson was presented with the handsome prize—a Cigarette case—he had won in the recent billiard tournament, Mr. A. Ritchie, the runner-up, getting a smaller cup, while Mr. Rye, who made the presentation took occasion to refer to the evening record of the Institution to a new home on the Fringe, in the building lately completed by Messrs Jardine, Matheson & Co. This should be an ideal position.

REVIEW.

The Face of China, by E. G. KEMP, F.R.S.G.S. London, Chatto and Windus.

This very sumptuous quarto comes at an opportune time. It gives an accurate account of things seen and observed during two visits to China, one before and one after the Boer disturbances of 1900, and spreads before the reader's eye a fair and impartial statement of conditions as they really are in the Flowery Kingdom. Miss Kemp and her lady companion seem to have thoroughly enjoyed their experience in the long overland trip from Peking to Shamo, and we find the author's statement in her preface: "The journey was one long series of pleasant surprises and my friend expressed the feelings of both of us when, on crossing the frontier into Burma, she exclaimed, 'If only we could turn round and go the way back again!'"

The mishaps and inconveniences of travel were treated very lightly by these ladies, while it must also be acknowledged that they were well served both in the matter of trustworthy guides and personal attendants. It is no easy frolic journeying through western China, in the depth of winter, as Miss Kemp found when she came to ascending Mount Omi, or when she struck the early spring mistral which howls through the valleys, and across the mountains of Yunnan. But she had ample compensations in the many beautiful things she saw, and which she has reproduced for the benefit of the stay-at-homes in many exquisite pictures. Her sketches are printed in colours throughout the book, and very beautiful they are. Some of the more striking are of course associated with the Yangtze Gorges and Mount Omi, but there are also dainty gems from Szechuan and the border lands of Yunnan. Miss Kemp frankly owns to having fallen under the spell of the marvellous people and the marvellous land of China, and she is fired with the ambition to cast that spell even on those who have never been there by means of her pen and brush. We think that she should easily attain the summit of her ambition, for her pictures are very alluring and her letter-press accurate and sober, paced, while despite her professions of enthusiasm, she really shows us "what the face of China actually is." The volume, we observe, is dedicated to Principal Marcus Dods, D.D., and he should be proud to handle such a handsome tome, with its ample margins, fair, large print and exquisite illustrations.
